Illinois Farm Bureau 2015 LEGISLATIVE WINS

1. Aligned Illinois Covered Farm Vehicle exemptions with federal transportation regulations.
2. Weight limits on township roads cannot be permanently reduced without a public hearing and approval from a county engineer.
3. Improved notification requirements for landowners who may be impacted by proposed transmission line projects.
4. Required commercial wind farm operators to enter an agreement to protect agricultural land before constructing a wind farm.
5. Analyzed all bills introduced by the Illinois General Assembly that may impact agriculture and took positions on them to protect farmers, their economic well-being, and their freedom to operate their farms.

Illinois General Assembly has approved these at this time
